

DEBRIS MANAGEMENT PLANNING
FOR STATE, TRIBAL AND LOCAL OFFICIALS (G202)
Sponsored by the Rhode Island Emergency Management Agency

Date: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 26-28, 2009

Location: Sheraton Airport Hotel, 1850 Post Road, Warwick, RI

Times: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

This course provides an overview of issues and recommended actions necessary to plan for, respond to, and recover from a major debris-generating event with emphasis on state, tribal and local responsibilities. Developed from a pre-disaster planning perspective, the course includes debris staff organizations, compliance with laws and regulations, contracting procedures, debris management site selection, volume reduction methods, recycling, special debris situations and supplementary assistance.

Selection Criteria: Tribal, local and state emergency management personnel, including public works and waste management staffs, who are responsible for planning and/or implementing debris removal and disposal actions.

Course Acceptance: Applicants will be e-mailed a confirmation letter prior to course commencement. Since seating is limited, we will make sure that each community is represented. We can't guarantee more than 1-2 seats per community.

Meals: Students will be provided with a complimentary continental breakfast and lunch each day.

Cost: All training and course materials are free.

Registration: Students must complete the attached Registration Form.
